DINANT
OVERBED TABLE

Dinant Overbed Table

The Dinant Overbed Table is a dependable table designed as an economical option that offers great value. It features a thermoformed top with spill containment. A spring-assisted lift mechanism allows the tabletop to be raised with minimal upward pressure and permits infinite height positioning within a range of 28" and 45".

Dinant, Belgium

Squeezed between the River Meuse and the high rocks that overlook it, Dinant is a long and narrow town. Host to the annual International Bathtub Regatta, over 25,000 people watch as bathtubs are propelled down the river by human force only.
